

The Suicide Run (Hardback)

By William Styron

Vintage Publishing, United Kingdom, 2010. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 222 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The four narratives which make up this posthumous collection draw upon William Styron s experiences in the US Marine Corps, and give us an insight into the early life of one of America s greatest modern writers. William Styron earned a commission as second lieutenant in the U.S Marine Corps in 1945, shortly after his twentieth birthday. He was scheduled to participate in the assault on mainland Japan, most likely as the leader of a mortar platoon, but in early August the United States dropped atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, ending the war. Before he was discharged Styron served a six-week stint as an officer at the military prison on Harts Island in Long Island Sound. In December 1945 he was mustered out of the Marine Corps, and lived with his father and stepmother at their home in Newport News, Virginia, before completing his bachelor degree at Duke University and embarking on his first novel, Lie Down in Darkness . Early in 1951, as he was composing the last two chapters of his manuscript, Styron was recalled into the Marine...
