The average education of our American citizenry does not exceed the sixth grade of our public elementary schools. 6. Five million children of school age in this country are not enrolled in any educational institution, public, private or parochial. 7. Sixty-four thousand children, five to eighteen years inclusive, in this country are inmates of industrial training schools for delinquents. This number is two itenths of 1 per cent. of the total population of children at these ages. 8. It may safely be estimated that 560,000 or 2 per cent. of children appear annually before a court handling juvenile cases for delinquency or dependency. 9. Two per cent., or 500,000 of all children between the ages of five and eighteen are destined, when they become men and women of years, to find themselves either in state hospitals for the insane, in private mental sanatoria, or under the care of specialists in nervous and mental diseases. 10. Five per cent. of our school children present symptoms which point definitely to a lack of mental balance, either in the form of a psychosis or a neurosis. 11. Two per cent., or about 500,000 children of school age, are happily endowed with a degree of superior mental endowment which if properly developed will make for leadership and social gain, --if neglected or mishandled educationally, may make for inefficiency and social liability. 12. Of this half-million mentally gifted children, a recent survey2 indicates that only about 600 are actually receiving...
