Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Life Story of a Leper: Autobiography of John E. Davis, Missionary Among the Telugus On the suggestion of my brother George and fellow-missionaries, I have written this brief sketch of my life. I cannot see to write a word myself. I cannot speak out loud. A large part of my body is paralyzed, so this has been a slow and difficult task and has taken a long time. I wish the reward of a rich blessing upon the lady who so kindly gave me her spare moments to write down my thoughts. I could not sit and write and re-write as I might if I were well. Nor could I wait until I was in the mood for writing. I had to work whenever I could get some one to write for me, and so the pictures are not so graphic nor the sentences so smooth nor the thought so cohesive as I would like. J. E. Davis. Preface To The Second Edition. The first edition of 1,000 copies of the Life Story of a Leper sold rapidly, and we are glad to issue a second and larger edition. From all over the land have come expressions of inspiration received from the reading of this wonderful life. We are sure that the book will yet find its way into thousands of homes. It is everywhere deepening interest in that most unfortunate class of people in India - the lepers - and it is a strange Providence that the one through whose prayers and pleadings the Leper Asylum at Ramachandrapuram is so largely due, should himself have become a martyr to the disease. Mr. Davis...
