

Ad Parnassum

By Nancy Weber

Underground Voices, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ad Parnassum is Nancy Weber's offbeat and eclectic novella, written in 1973. Included are two additional short stories: Might Have Been and A Name For It. REVIEWS The writing in all three works is rich with action and conflict, and it encourages readers to burrow deeper into the hidden layers of meaning. - Publisher's Weekly A swift, witty metafiction, Parnassus is life as seen through a kaleidoscope, offering a fresh take on a bright, ever-changing scene. - Kit Reed In Ad Parnassum, Nancy Weber has created a novella that is, on the one hand, entirely ingenious, fascinating and clever and, on the other, profoundly moving. More, she has introduced us to a heroine so singular and compelling that we can only hope that Weber will share her with us again, and soon. How Weber accomplishes this feat is as unique as her heroine. Ad Parnassum's extraordinary nonlinear structure (and I will not spoil the surprise by saying more) leads us through a warren of love and sex that are totally separated, sex and...
