Excerpt: .cultivate the rational and moral faculties of the slaves. Not only is the negro population decreasing through ignorance and vice, but the loss of property, from the utter want of moral principle among them, is greater than you can imagine. This I see continually, but this does not absorb me. I do not blame the slaveholder alone. I blame the prosperous classes of society everywhere, who are leaving not a few around them to live and die in a darkness and vice little inferior to those of the slaves. St. Croix, January 20, 1831. This island might be one of the happiest spots on earth, with this delicious atmosphere and fertile and beautiful surface. The time, I trust, is coming, when the most favoured regions of the earth will not be given up to oppression and sensuality. As yet, the West Indies have formed a dark page in human history. I know not a spot on earth, where man has done more to countenance the doctrine of total depravity. To-day is Sunday, and in wandering an hour ago on the hills in my neighbourhood, which overlook a beautiful tract of land and sea, I could not but feel how the creation was marred by human guilt. I felt, too, the benignity of Providence in mixing good with evil. I saw the slaves on the different plantations enjoying their leisure, and could not but be grateful for the Sabbath on their account, more than on...
