By John Bruning

William Morrow Paperbacks. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 384 pages. In combat, men measure up. Or dont. There are no second chances. In this vivid account of the U. S. Armys legendary 10th Mountain Divisions heroic stand in the mountains of Afghanistan, Captain Sean Parnell shares an action-packed and highly emotional true story of triumph, tragedy, and the extraordinary bonds forged in battle. At twenty-four years of age, U. S. Army Ranger Sean Parnell was named commander of a forty-man elite infantry platoon and 151;a unit that came to be known as the Outlaws and 151;and was tasked with rooting out Pakistan-based insurgents from a mountain valley along Afghanistans eastern frontier. Parnell and his men assumed they would be facing a ragtag bunch of civilians, but in May 2006 what started out as a routine patrol through the lower mountains of the Hindu Kush became a brutal ambush. Barely surviving the attack, Parnells men now realized that they faced the most professional and seasoned force of light infantry the U. S. Army had encountered since the end of World War II. What followed was sixteen months of close combat, over the course of which the platoon became Parnells family: from...
