Sometimes we express them; sometimes we don't express them; sometimes we try to express them, but it doesn't come out right; sometimes we just don't know how to express them the way we really want to. Sometimes what is on the inside comes out different when it gets to the outside. This book is an attempt to match what is on the inside with what comes out on the outside. It is not necessarily the right way or the wrong way; it is just a way. Maybe you can feel these feelings, maybe you can't. Sometimes we are inspired, sometimes we are inspired to inspire others. I just want to share these feelings with you and hope something comes out of it that is good. Maybe you will feel them as Poetic. Brother Lawrence, formerly known as Lawrence Brown, is a native of Washington, D. C. He was born and (mostly) educated in D. C., but currently resides in Prince Georges County, Maryland, right outside of Washington, D. C. Most of his career was spent working with people in teaching, counseling, training and managing educational, recreational and social programs for all ages, sexes, creeds, races and ethnic groups, and special populations. He is retired and spends most of his time, skills and gifts working in a ministry he founded about 15 years ago. It is based on Christian principles and the Word of God. He believes that love is the greatest known power in the universe, and that God is the epitome of love. The ministry is called IAAG (Pronounced Eeeyagg), because It's All About God.
