This committee will report at the next meeting of the Board, which occurs late in June. President Read has recovered from his protracted, and at one time dangerous, illness. Kansas.--The schools in the cities and towns are generally in good condition, and will compare favorably with similar schools in other states; but in the matter of country or district schools, Kansas is certainly in advance of many of her sister states. We account for this in the following facts: 1st. The teachers are qualified for the work, about one-fourth having received instruction for not less than a year in Normal Schools, and a majority of the remainder in County Normal Institutes, held during the summer months. 2d. Teachers are better paid. 3d. There is more of a professional corps cTespit among them than we have seen elsewhere. 4th. The people, as well as the teachers,...
