Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Woodland Idyls Be ye satisfied with little things should be the adage or precept set before the eyes of every one who in the woods seeks fancies for his brain, contentment for his soul. The little things of nature, her wayside weeds, her birds and butterflies, her boulders large and pebbles small, her odors sweet, her songs of winds and rippling waters, her grasses green and posies gay, these and many others she offered unto me as themes when with her I sojourned. With a tent as shelter I spent on three occasions a week or two with her in western Indiana. Through her old pastures and along her streams I wandered free and wrote of these her little offerings; wrote also at times of that earth to which my dust belongs and of the sun, her ruler. What I wrote was mine, free from all influence or bias of other human brain, and as such, in the words there penned, I offer it to you. Thousands of men, now toilers in the cities, were country-bred. For a week or two each summer most of them can get away. Then should they to the country hie and live again the simple life.
